Wood Wanted.
To those of our subscribers that contracted to pay in wood for their subscription, we would say to them that we now need it and to bring it in: if you haven't time, bring us the money so we can buy it.

Your name is registered at Traynor's Drug Store, for a bottle of Smith's Scrofula Syrup and Star Carbine. If you have not yet received it, please call on us.

To School Directors.
Notice was given last week to school directors to meet at the office of the county Supt. on the 15th day of November. Let none fail to be on hand. Important business claims their attention.
T. M. Montgomery,
County Supt.

Officers of all Counties can buy Legal Blanks of all kinds by sending to this office. We understand the Nashville printers. Give us a trial order. Sep. 17, '88.

Death of A. C. Joseph.
Aaron C. Joseph, who has been suffering severely with swelling in his right leg, died Saturday night about 8 p. m. Mr. Joseph has for many years been a citizen of Cleveland; his business most of the time being that of a merchant. He leaves a wife and four children.

NO PISTOLS.
Metallic Cartridges of all kinds for sale by L. L. Osment, Cleveland, Tenn.

To Our Readers.
The outcome of the struggle between the political parties will soon be fully known, the excitement which has been running so high will subside, and people will begin to look after themselves again. They will find that their systems have been giving way under the strain and need building up, which a few doses of Dr. Hart's Anti-Bilious discovery will do, or if colds have been contracted, use Symphyx.

Buy your Saddles, Bridles, Harness, etc., of the undersigned. Repairing of all kinds done on short notice. Satisfaction guaranteed. J. L. Wren, Jr.

Married.

and A. B. Blunt to W. S. Tipton, town lot.

More marking pots were needed.
Red Steaks at $2.00 at Surgine & Co's.
More Chinese letters were needed.
329 was an unfortunate number for the unwashed.
Miss Ada Rogers, of Dalton, Ga., is visiting relatives in the city.

100,000 bushels of Peas wanted at Hardwick's. Highest price paid.

The President has designated Thursday, Nov. 25th as a day of thanksgiving.

The Misses Southerman left for Chattanooga Wednesday, at which place they intend to reside in the future.

Common sense. For all cases of Coughs, Colds, Sore throat, etc., use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Miss Jennie Bard, of this city, left last Monday for Cartersville, Ga., where she expects to remain for a few weeks.

All kinds of Furniture at Surgine & Co's.

The Bald mountain hunters returned last Saturday and report 2 deer and a bull eagle as a result of their expedition.

The latest advice to the most enthusiastic democrat, is, "keep your money in your pocket, when it's there you are sure you've got it."

Surgine pays the highest price for Peas and all kinds of barter remember he is head quarters for produce of all kinds.

"Hold you so," is the remarks of the democrats since the election, you can find no one that had faith in the democracy. So be it.

Mrs. A. C. Joseph wishes us to state that she will sell at auction and private sale all her household furniture at 2 o'clock Saturday next.

In this issue will be seen the card of S. C. Cash. He has on hand a fine lot of leather, and has associated with him W. W. Silvers, one of the finest workmen the country affords.

Hardwick's new stock of fall and winter goods are the finest in the city.
Call and examine.

The Bradley County Bible Society meets at the C. P. Church Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock p. m. The Society will be addressed by Rev. W. H.
Darnell and others. All are respectfully invited to attend.

Don't fail to examine Hardwick's stock of new goods just received.

The concert at the M. E. Church on last Friday and Saturday nights was a success. The audience was small on account of the inclemency of the weather. The singing can not be surpassed by any of our larger towns. Mrs.
Campbell and Lusk can only be equalled by the stars of the stage. We understand fully enough was realized to more than pay for the trouble.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Tiffin, Ohio, says: I have worn an Improved Excelsior Kidney Pad, and received more relief than from all remedies I have ever tried. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. See Adv.

Hardwick buys your Peas. Take them to him and get best prices.

"A house divided against itself cannot stand." This old scriptural truth is proven in the late Tennessee democracy.

Maynard was right when he told us "that the boys north of the Ohio settled the question in October." It is now settled and will remain so for all time to come, "and don't you forget it."

Mrs. Wm. Tippet, Owasso, N. Y., says:—I have worn an Improved Excelsior Kidney Pad about three weeks, and have received great relief from it for pain in the back.—See Adv.

Read from the HERALD, the paper of thy choice,
And lend to its support the strength of thy voice.

And the night shall be filled with music
Shall fold their tents like Arabs And as silently pass away.

Bradley County.
The election is this county in this county passed off quietly, although not a full vote; yet the Republicans were alive and give to their candidates a good majority. We had intended to give the official vote of each district, but want of space prevents us from doing so. The following is the official vote for the county:

Garfield and Arthur, 531
Hancock and English, 664 Hawkins, 809
Wright, 344
Wilson, 630
Case, 602
Dibrell, 910
Shipley, 818
Carter, 918
Stuart, 774

The Entertainment.
The entertainment given by the Free Union school last Saturday night was attended by a large crowd who seemed to be well pleased with the exercises.
After the crowd was treated with the speeches, essays and recitations well rendered, Mr. J. M. Bendall was introduced, who made a nice address and presented a beautiful bouquet to all the little girls who said speeches. Mr.
John Lea made a speech on female education and presented all the young ladies who read essays, a large bunch of flowers. Owing to the recent ill health of Mr. T. M. Montgomery and the inclemency of the evening he failed to be present, but the entertainment was a grand success.

Debt Statement.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The debt statement, issued to-day, shows the decrease of the public debt, during the month of October, to be $7,103,753.68; cash in the treasury, $209,545,486.71; gold certificates, $7,474,500.00; silver certificates, $27,112,000.00; certificates of deposit outstanding, $703,000.00; refunding certificates, $970,200.00; legal tenders outstanding, $347,681,016.00; fractional currency outstanding, $7-181,861.37.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

Fixing Thursday, 25th inst., as Thanksgiving Day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The following proclamation was issued today:

A PROCLAMATION.

At no period in their history, since the United States became a nation, has this people had so abundant and so universal reasons for joy and gratitude at the favor of Almighty God, or been subject to so profound an obligation to give thanks for His loving kindness, and humbly to implore His continued care and protection. Health, wealth and prosperity throughout all our borders; peace, honor and friendship with all the world; firm and faithful adherence to the great body of our population to the principles of liberty and justice which have made our greatness as a nation, and to wise institutions and society which will perpetuate it.
For all these let the thanks of the happy and united people as with one voice ascend in devout homage to the Giver of all good. I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, 25th day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship to make their acknowledgements to Almighty God for His bounties and protection and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this first day of November, 1880, and of the independence of the United States the 105th.

(Signed) R. B. HAYES,
Wm. M. EVARTS,
Secretary of State.

Blue Springs Maids Reply to "Elsie Strange."

Miss Elsie, our friend, sure enough you are "Strange."
To select your own sex among whom to make raids,
And pour out your fury regardless of truth.

Upon offensive Blue Springs maids.
"Tis true there arpen (you say 25) Maids, living within the Blue Springs range.

Two years from this, there'll be added another,
Her name I'll not give, she signs "Elsie Strange."

Elsie thinks its amusing, as time hurries on To see the old maids looking out for a bean,
But they tell me for truth, Elsie puts in close time
Trying to get off, but finds it no go.

She speaks of the maids arranging their faces Smiling and trying a further to catch, But they tell it on Elsie, if one would propose She and a farmer would soon make a match.

Elsie hopes the boys will be very kind To the maids who are trying a husband to get,
This is all very natural, as she's on the limit
And has been ten years, but has not found one yet.

Dear Elsie, may your wishes, by fate be consulted E'er old and gray wrinkled you're grown;
Yes, may you get married to some sort of thing
For its plain you are dieing, for a home of your own.

Though time I have taken to write you in rhyme
To hint and advise, with good common sense, I hope you'll keep cool when the HERALD you read, For I don't wish at all, to give you offense.

Eye, bye dear Elsie, the next time you write Don't say ugly things about your own sex,
For you know by experience its hard to get married There's much to worry, to trouble and vex.

Georgia Illicit Whisky.
The commissioner of internal revenue received the following telegram from Collector Andrew Clark, under date of Atlanta, Ga: "Seized in Red Oak, Campbell county, last night, four illicit distilleries and destroyed five thousand gallons of mash and beer.
Have seized, within thirty days, thirty illicit distilleries, two teams and about one thousand gallons of illicit spirits.
Nine of the distilleries were in the notorious Red Oak neighborhood. As soon as the stills are torn out in that section others are at once set up and illicit work resumed."

Polk County.
Real estate transfers for the month of October:

F. E. Hardwick to G. A. Coxie.
A. J. Conch et als to L. McLeod.
Wm. Stafford & wife to W. C. Cole.
Wm. Higgins to W. A. Prince and G. Lee.
E. Davis & wife to Sarah M. Young.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.
R. C. Fout to Mary R. Gossett.
N. J. Davis to M. E. Pierce.
John W. Gains to Mary A. Davis.
Jos. H. King to Mary Heugner.

Married, and yet unhappy. How many a home has been robbed of sunshine and happiness and rendered sad and desolate by the loss of some dear and petted child. This is a dangerous season for children, and parents should keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup handy.

The conduct of the Republicans on the streets since the election is greatly to be deplored. Nothing like the actions of the democrats four years ago when they thought Tilden was elected.
But the Republican boys are so used to victory they don't go crazy over it. We now only realize the expectations of the past.

Old Time Superstitions.
Whoever sneezes at an early hour either hears some news or receives some present the same day.
He who proposes moving into a new house must first send in bread and a new broom.
The first tooth cast by a child should be swallowed by its mother, to insure a new growth of teeth.
When women are stuffing beds, the men should not remain in the house, otherwise the feathers will come through the ticks.
Buttoning the coat away, or drawing on a stocking inside out, causes matters to go wrong during the day.
A child grows proud if permitted to look into the mirror while less than twelve years old.
When a person enters a room he should be obliged to sit down, if only for a moment, as he otherwise takes away the children's sleep with him.
By bending the head to the hollow of the arm the initial letter of one's future spouse is represented.

Shall We Meet Again.
The following is one of the most brilliant paragraphs ever written by the lamented George D. Prentice:
"The fiat of death is inexorable.
There is no appeal for relief from the great law which dooms us to dust.
We flourish and fade as the leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom, with and fade in a day have no frailer hold upon life than the mightiest monarch that ever shook the earth with his footsteps. Generations of men will appear and disappear as grass, and the multitude that throng the world to-day will disappear as footsteps on the shore. Men seldom think of the great event of death until the shadow falls across their own pathway, hiding from their eyes the faces of loved ones whose living smiles was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the antagonist of life and the thought of the tomb is he skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although the dark passage may lead to paradise; we do not want to go down into damp graves, even with Princes for bed-fellows. In the drama of 'Ion' the hope of immortality, so eloquently uttered by the death devoted Greek, finds deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his life a sacrifice to fate, his Clement asks if they should meet again, to which he responds: I have asked that dreadful question of the bills that look eternal—of the clear streams that flow forever—of stars among whose fields of azure my raised spirits have walked in glory.
All are dumb: But as I gaze upon thy living face, I feel that there is something in love that mingles through its beauty that cannot wholly perish. We shall meet again Clemanthe."

The Hattie House.
Gentlemen visiting Knoxville, with or without ladies, will find no better place to stop than the Hattie House.
The new Hotel adjoins the old Central House, and is complete in all its departments. It is now clean, cool, and well ventilated; its furniture is new and neat; the table is all that the palate could wish for; the cooking is supplied and the price of board is so reasonable that all can afford to patronize it.
The proprietor, J. C. Flanders, is well known as a polite, attentive and accommodating gentleman. Jy 22 tr.

What heart so cold that it does not throb with sympathy, unless with that of the poor bereaved mother, the Ex-Empress of France? "If sorrow's crown of sorrow is in remembering happier times," then, indeed, has the iron entered her soul. It is reported that she will enter the cloister of some gray old convent. Convent walls are dreadful and breed Rheumatism and kindred ailments, which can be cured by Casson's Lightning Liment; also a remedy for Lame Back, Sprains, Bruises, etc. Price 50 cts.
For sale by Surgine & Stead.
White's Cream White Vermifuge is the best worm killer.

Those who use the utmost care, keeping on constant guard to preserve their health, as well as the man who sleeps with his back gate open, may sometimes suffer with a cough or cold, which if neglected may prove a serious trouble.
For all such sufferers, Casson's Honey (For advice see advertisement) is a valuable remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Price 50 cents.
For sale by Surgine & Stead.
White's Cream White Vermifuge is
the best worm killer.

Hand in hand, like two Sisters of Mercy, bringing health and happiness to the afflicted among mankind, they have grown so popular in almost every family that their names are as familiar as household words, and are now known as the safest and most effectual remedies for all diseases emanating from an impure state of the blood.
They are not coarse, disgusting alcoholic mixtures, but really scientific combinations of those curative agents, which are known and acknowledged by the medical profession to possess the greatest influence in the treatment of all Blood Diseases. Scrofula, Catarrh, White Swelling, Cancer, Piles, Milk Leg, Cancer of the Womb, Old Chronic Sores, no matter how long standing, can be cured by using Smith's Scrofula Syrup and Star Carbine.

Smith's Scrofula Syrup is an internal remedy, and not a cosmetic, and does not disturb, but a rich, elegant and delicate syrup, holding in perfect solution the active medicinal principles of those articles of the natural media which possess the power of purifying the blood. Star Carbine is for external application, purely vegetable. By applying it on the outside and taking Smith's Scrofula Syrup, any of the above mentioned diseases will be easily cured.

Call on your merchant or druggist for a copy of our Circulars, which will give you the names of hundreds of people living in your own State that have been cured, sound and well by using these two great remedies.
To those who are convinced. One bottle of each may save you years of suffering and palaps save your life. For sale by Druggists and dealers everywhere. For sale by John D. Traynor, Cleveland, Tenn.

Justice's Blanks.
Justices' Blanks for sale at this office cheaper than they can be bought in
